Aims

- a) Neve Shalom ~ Wahat al Salam is an Arab-Jewish village founded in 1970 near Latrun. The residents are Palestinians and Jewish, citizens of Israel, who have chosen to create a shared community which aims to challenge existing relations between Arabs and Jews. The community strives to establish an egalitarian model which breaks down social barriers which prevail in Israeli society.
- b) The establishment of public educational and cultural institutions – including the establishment of a primary school and a school for peace and institutions for cultural activities with the aim to promote goals of the organization in general and to promote the idea of peace in particular.
- c) To establish a centre for the three monotheistic largest religions (Jewish, Christian and Moslem)
